

A Note To My Friends, Family & Supporters,

Thank you for all of your support over these last five years! I couldn't have done it without you. It's been our mission, from day one, to bring the human element back to the practice of law. Lawyers are often criticized for their seemingly immoral ways, greed, and "lawyer speak." At Zavala Law, PC, what you see is what you get. We will keep you informed and will hold your hand from the minute you hire us until the minute your case is resolved. You can count on us to keep it real with you and to treat you like the person you are--not merely a case or file number. I am looking forward to continuing to expand our reach within California, and to helping more of you.

I wish you all the best,

Matt

REVIEWS

Zavala Law helped me & ZL can help you too!

In need of a personal injury attorney? How about a personal injury attorney whom is respectful, down to earth, and as straight forward as he is well intentioned? I suggest Mathew Zavala @ Zavala Law. Zavala approaches law differently than any lawyer I've spoken with. His approach with the intake consultation feels less like a visit to the doctor and more like a friend giving you advice, listening to your concerns and brainstorming with you to try and help you find the right avenue for you! EXCEPT unlike the "typical friend", Zavala has the education, focus, intellect and experience to provide useful advice. Zavala Law can equip you with the helpful tools needed in dealing with the complexities of the intricate and ever-evolving art that is the practice of law. If you are injured and have questions, not sure of what to ask, or how to phrase your question, if you are intimidated by the prospect of, and/or previously have had a bad experience with an attorney I STRONGLY suggest you contact: Mathew Zavala @ Zavala Law

Best lawyer ever

Matt Zavala is the best attorney I've ever had. He manages expectations, returns all calls promptly and kept me apprised of progress throughout my case. While I was recovering from my accident, Matt called often to just check in and see how I was feeling. He included me in decision made. Strongly recommended awesome!!

He is an advocate fighter for justice, was not afraid to take my case to trial. I am thankful for his team and services but utmost as a human being, sincere and honest, leaving no rock unturned. Again a big thank you for everything!

"Matt Zavala is truly one of a kind!"

Matt Zavala is truly one of a kind. I say this because he exemplifies patience, kindness, persistence and professionalism at an extreme level. My case took him over a year and from beginning to end with every turn and pitfall he fought harder. I just could not have been blessed with a better attorney. The most honest man and deserving of all things. I owe him my sanity...if you want a chance at keeping yours...give him a call.
